Furthermore, poor digestion makes the blood thin and watery and deficient in red corpuscles, and this further irritates and weakens the heart. The most sensible thing to do for heart trouble is to insure the digestion and assimilation of the food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain the necessary digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

Thousands of people keep well and vigorous by keeping their digestion perfect by observing the rule of taking one or two of these tablets after each meal, or at least after each hearty meal. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain U. S. P. pepsin, diastase from malt and other natural digestives which act only on the food, digesting it per fectly and preventing acidity, gases and the many

GENERAL SEAMANS DEAD BIG SYNDICATE IN TROUBLE COMMENTED TO SEA COMMENTED T

CUMBS TO HEART TROUBLE.

Had Beenilli ta This City for Several

General William H. Seamans, adjutant mise was not unexpected, as he has been seriously ill for some time, the result of an attack of inflammatory rheumatism which affected his heart, leaving that organ in a weakened state, for which it was impossible to find an adequate remedy. General Seamans came to Washington about three weeks ago on business connected with the California National Guard and the naval militia. He was prostrated soon after his arrival. Mrs. Seamans, who accompanied him east, but who went to New York on a visit, was summoned shortly after her husband's illness and remained at his bed-Everything that medical skill could suggest was done to relieve the sufferer, but from the beginning of his illness General Seamans grew steadily worse. Dr. W. W. Johnson and the other surgeons at his bedside saw several days ago that his death was inevitable. They resorted to the oxygen treatment several days ago in order to prolong his life, but without avail.

A Prominent Citizen. Gen. Seamans has been one of the mos prominent citizens of Los Angeles, Cal., for many years. He was born in Pennsylvanla sixty-seven years ago, and was taken by his parents to Massachusetts in his early boyhood. At the outbreak of the civil war he joined the 13th Massachusetts Infantry, and was commissioned a lieuten-ant. He was subsequently transferred to the 3d Massachusetts Cavalry, promoted to a captaincy and made an aid on the staff of Gen. Grover of the 19th Army Corps.

In almost all the battles around New Orleans, Ship Island, Baton Rouge and Mobile he took an active part. He was present when Farragut ran the blockade at the last pamed city. His removal to the west last named city. His removal to the west occurred at the close of the war, and he soon became one of the best known mining experts in that section of the country. For several years he engaged in mining operations; then he became clerk of the supreme court of Arizona, and subsequently he removed to California and settled in Los Angeles Angeles.

He organized and became president of the Los Angeles commandery of the California branch of the Loyal Legion, and served as vice commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of the department of California for two terms. At the time of his death he was chief officer of the Army and Navy League of California. Gen. Seamans has long been an active member of the state National Guard of which command he was National Guard, of which command he was appointed adjutant general in 1899. Gen. Seamans left a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Barnes of Sacramento, Cal. He was extremely popular among all the officers in the service of his state, and was a member of several clubs in Los Angeles and of the Union League Club of San Francisco.

Interment in California. The remains, accompanied by the widow and under the escert of Mr. Douglas White of San Francisco, a warm personal friend of the family, will be taken to that city for interment, which will probably be at the While no information has been received up to the present time, a state funeral in accordance with his rank will undoubtedly be arranged.

Wednesday, January 15 at Apparolis Md.

Hays, and E. G. Tillotson and W. C. It is understood that at a general meet-Wednesday, January 15, at Annapolis, Md., the report of the operation of the waterway for the past year will be read, giving a detailed statement of the tonnage and rethe disbursements. The past year has been | than five-sixths of all of the Cleveland in a rather good one for the canal, so it is said, comparatively little damage having been done the waterway during the year. The late floods in the Potomac, it is stated, may have inflicted damage equal to the amount spent the entire season for acci-dents, and that is comparatively little. Thomas William Frank, aged thirty-five of 1222 32d street, died this morning at 8:10 o'clock, at his residence. The coroner was notified. The dead man was a victim of asthma. Last evening he was taken sick and one of the physicians from the Georgetown University Hospital was called, but this morning death ensued. Acting Sergeant W. W. Easley has been returned to the county north of Georgetown for mounted duty, filling the vacancy caused by the retirement of Sergeant George Hess. Policemen J. J. Murphy, who was recently promoted acting sergeant and sent to No. 5 precinct, has been transferred to No. 10 precinct, to take the place caused by the transfer of Acting Sergeant Easley. The funeral of Mrs. Rosa A. Clarke, who died Tuesday at the Georgetown University died Tuesday at the Georgetown University Hospital, was held this morning at 8:30 o'clock from her late residence, 3067 Canal street. A mass of requiem was chanted at 9 o'clock at Trinity Church. The funeral was largely attended.

Hundred Families Forced to th

A hundred families living in the flats and owlands around Chattanooga camped on the cnolls Wednesday night because of the high pled and many houses are submerged. A trap containing President Robert Pritchard of the Chattanooga Hunt Club. Pritchard of the Chattanooga Hunt Club, Col. W. P. Henderson, H. H. Matlack of Athens, Tenn., and Mr. Gordon Lee of Georgia, while returning from the New Year meet of the hunt club, went into a washout near Eastlake and was overturned. Col. Henderson suffered two broken ribs and the others were slightly injured. Twenty-seven miles of track are under water on the Western and Atlantic road. Chattanooga is almost surrounded by water. By noon yesterday the river had by water. By noon yesterday the river had fallen two inches. Most of the damage has been due to back water.

Another Suit Against Capt. Carter. In the United States court at Savannah Ga., yesterday, Marion Erwin, special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, filed a new bill in the case of the government against Oberlin M. Car-

The bill seeks to prevent the Savannah Brewing Company, the Savannah Lighter Brewing Company, the Savannah Lighterage and Transfer Company, and the Propeller Tow Boat Company, in which Carter held large blocks of stock, from paying the interest accruing to either the agent or the receiver for Captain Carter's property. It orders Thomas Martin, who owes Carter $6,000 on a note, to pay the money to the receiver and John K. Garnett, who for $6,000 bought Carter's stock in the "Port of Savannah Company," which bought up Hunting Island, to turn that money over to the government.

A dispatch from Cleveland, Ohio, yestergeneral of the state of California, died at day says: The financial affairs of the Everhis apartments in the Arlington Hotel, this ett-Moore syndicate, owning or controlling city, at 10,45 o'clock this morning. His derailways, and an extensive system of local and long distance telephone lines in Ohio and Michigan, passed into the control of a bankers of this city today. This action was taken, it is stated, as the result of temporary financial embarrassment on the part of the syndicate, which has for some time > money market. The committee chosen has been at work investigating the affairs of the syndicate and expresses the firm belief that the concern is entirely solvent, and that its embarrass-ment will be only temporary. The Everett-Moore syndicate is accredited with controlling more than 1,200 miles of urban and interurban electric lines in Ohio and Michigan, with many new extensions still in

Among the telephone properties owned outright or controlled by the syndicate are the Cuyahoga Telephone Company of this city, with upward of 10,000 subscribers; the United States Telephone Company, (long distance), the Federal Telephone Company, the Stark County (Ohio) Telephone Company, the Columbiana County (Ohio) Telephone Company phone Company, the People's Telephone Company of Detroit, the Wood County (Ohio) Telephone Company, and a number of others in which the Federal Telephone Company is the controlling factor.

Among the more important electric railroad properties in which the syndicate is largely interested are the Cleveland Electric Railway Company, the Detroit United Railway Company, the Toledo Railway and Light Company, the Northern Ohic Traction Company, the Cleveland, Painesraction Company, the Creveland, Faines-ville and Eastern Railway Company, the Detroit and Toledo Shore Line Railroad Company, and the Lake Shore Electric Railroad Company. The committee of bankers organized by electing H. R. Newcomb as chairman and E. C. Tillotson secretary.

The following statement was today given out by the committee: "It became apparent some time ago to some of the members of the Everett-Moore syndicate, so called, that on account of the tight money situation in the different centers where they were financing some of their enter-prises, and although in their opinion they owned several million dollars' worth of property over and above their liabilities, they would be unable without temporary assistance to meet their obligations. Many of these obligations arose from the fact that the syndicate was engaged in the construction of a number of enterprises which were not yet fully completed, quiring large amounts of money to pay for labor and materials in the construction. "It was found that there were in Cleve-and upward of thirty banks that were their creditors, and that these banks held ecial Correspondence of The Evening Star. HAGERSTOWN, Md., January 2, 1902. Samuel Penner and wife and Samuel L. Miller of Scottdale, Pa., have filed a bill to sell the farm at Big Pool, this county, left by Daniel Miller to his daughter, Louisa, who was the first wife to the late Lewis G. Stanhope, well known in Washington, where he at one time held an important position under the city government. Three verdicts for $2,500, $750 and $237.50 damages, respectively, were rendered against the Western Maryland Railroad Company in the supreme court in Balti-

George W. Corby, an old man of Williamsport, convicted of carrying concealed weapons, was put on probation by Judge Stake until 1903, in $50 bonds, on his own recognizance. Judge Stake said he had known Corby all his life. Corby was a neighbor. He was a good soldier and generally speaking a good citizen, but he had a bad temper and allowed it to control him. He advised Corby the next time he got into a violent temper to sit down and sing a couple of the old Methodist hymns he used to hear him sing in the days gone by, and by the time he had finished he thought his temper would be abated.

Rumor of Miss Stone's Release. A dispatch to the London Central News from Vienna says a report has been received there, via Sofia, to the effect that Miss Ellen M. Stone, the captive American missionary, has been released. The report lacks confirmation.

The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Teiegraph has cabled an unconfirmed rumor to the effect that Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka were liberated in Turkey on January 1, and that the Americans who conducted the negotiations resulting in this reported release agreed, in the presence of the captives, to maintain absolute silence concerning the captors. If this promise is broken, concludes the correspondent, vengeance will be wreaked upon the American mission.
